Ray-tramp pictures

In a broadcast I heard a week ago, probably one of those relating to the story in Playboy of 9/77, there was an interview of Jack Kershaw.

He was asked about Raoul and his having said that Ray had identified a picture as that of Raoul.

He was asked more and he went through the whole spiel on the tramp pictures, Dealey Plaza, the works.

He said that Ray had made this identification from those pictures.

I think but I'm not sure that he used the wino description rather than that of tramps.
